

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVER is recommended
Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills
This Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West India and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than can be said of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstenate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.— To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative, Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water, A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natura weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

A HIGHLAND HUSBAND'S GIFT.
From a manuscript in the (Rob Roy) M.
(Green family.)

Wear the Mountain's diamond, fairest!
In thy waving hair;
It will nobly seem and rarest
If it sparkles there;
For only this dark gem can vie
With those brown tresses' burnish'd dye,
And well the elves that guard it know,
If it might touch thy spotless brow,
For ever in thy memory.

Thy wedded love would living be.
Or hanging on thy ear, dearest,
A moment let it chime;
Then in every voice thou hearest Shall seem a sound of mine—Yet no—for never by the tone Of silver words was true love known; I would not tax thy soul to give The fondness that on words can live.

But place it on thy hand, sweetest, Clasp'd with the holy gold,
And when a stranger's hand thou meetest, Thine shall be winter cold;
And thou shalt late and tablet take In bower or chamber for my sake;
And it shall teach thy pen to shew How thought should speak where speech is true.

Then hide it in thy breast, dearest!
If it be pure as fair,
When to thy heart this gem is nearest,
My image shall be there;
For it has spells more deep and strong When hid its native power among;
And it shall have most power to bless Where all is peace and holiness.

A mind may be naturally unearthly and reined, serious and contemplative, and in a sense devotional; it may love to speculate upon mortality and futurity, and it may be, in the view of itself and of others, just the sort of mind to be very religious, that is, amiable and intellectual; but it cannot become holy and spiritual, without the same Almighty energy that must be exerted to renovate the worldly or the indolent, the selfish or the vain.

Men are apt to grow, in the apostolical phrase, too "worldly." The propensity of our nature, or rather the operation of our state, is to plunge us, the lower orders of the community, in the concerns of the day, and their masters in the cares of wealth and gain.—It is good for us sometimes to be "in the mount." Those things are to be cherished, which tend to elevate us above our ordinary sphere, and to abstract us from our common and every-day concerns. The affectionate recollection and admiration of the dead will act gently upon our spirits, and fill us with a composed seriousness favourable to the best and most honourable contemplations. Godwin.

Strong sense, united, to delicate sentiment, improved by study and observation, and free from prejudice, is necessary to form a proper judge of literary productions.

According to the Bibliographie de la France, there have been published within the year 1817, in that country, four thousand two hundred and thirty-seven works; 1179 engravings; and 470 pieces of music.
The first three weeks of the present year have produced 280 publications, 63 engravings, and 26 new tunes.

INSANITY.
A young Frenchman who was tried in London lately, for an attack on a Roman Catholic clergyman in church with a drawn sword, was acquitted as being insane. The lady where the prisoner lodged for the last 13 months, proved the following extrordinary conduct in his mode of living: for some weeks he confined his diet to bread (without yeast) and water—then he would live for weeks on fowl, eating twenty one per week—then for a time on oranges—then on oil cakes—then on boiled flour and water —then on the juice of pounded grapes—then on the juice of pounded roses—then on un-boiled peas—then on boiled ones, eating each day three pecks of shelled ones, and one of them with the shells—sometimes changing his diet to mutton, of which he would eat six pounds per day. He had also a variety of iron armour made, weighing 214 pounds each, which he used to try on at the brazier's and say, that he would walk in them 50 leagues a day. He had also an iron crown, and a highly polished double edged sword about 8 feet in length.
He avowed his intention of leading forty millions of men to exterminate the Barbary States. The iron suits of armour for himself and a horse were produced in court.

HINTS FOR THE LADIES.
The longer a woman remains single, the more apprehensive will she be of entering into the state of wedlock. At seventeen or eighteen, a girl will plunge into it often without fear or wit; at twenty she will begin to think; at twenty-four, will weigh and discriminate; at twenty-eight, will be afraid of venturing; at thirty, will turn about, and look down the hill she ascended, and sometimes repeat that she has attained that summit.

ALEXANDRIA:
SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8.

When party animosity raged among our people to an extent that cannot yet be forgotten, and as long as it is remembered ought never to be thought of without bitter regret and shame, it was believed by many that if ever the great cause of conflict between the contending parties should cease to exist, or in other words, if the power and influence of one of them should be so crippled as to extinguish all its pretensions and hopes to gain the ascendancy, and if, in consequence of that, they who composed it should show a disposition to amalgamate with their fellow citizens, unite in one national principle, and make one common cause with them; it would be the most desirable event that could possibly occur, and place the whole population of the union in a felicitous state of mutual affection, charity and brotherly love, that could not fail to elevate their common country to the highest state of grandeur and respectability, which nature has furnished it with the means of attaining. Such a state of things, however, was regarded by numbers of able men as an event rather to be desired than expected—rather as the fond over-weening hope of an over-sanguine benevolence—the utopian project of a warm imagination—than any thing that was likely, at least for many years, to arise out of the chaotic anarchy of thought and feelings in which the nation was placed—that hateful medley of strife and artifice, of hatred, malice, heart-burning, crimination, recrimination, political intrigue, personal invective and personal wrong, which under the pretext of a very dubious patriotism, for several years passed continually from man to man, and like our filthy bank-ruins became the currency of the country, to the exclusion of a more valuable medicine.—Even those who were most disposed to hope for a speedy extinction of that plague of society and poison of the soul, party spirit, and to believe that the people in general would be too sensibly alive to their own comfort and interests, to neglect taking advantage of such a blessing, should it please the great Dis-poser to vouchsafe it to them, were yet afraid that either such an event would be retarded, or its effects be defeated by the wily policy of statesmen by trade, who having tasted of the sweets of power derived from the dexterous management of party collision, would be apt to consider the extinction of faction as the annihilation of their ascendancy, and for the indulgence of their own ambition would rather keep alive public animosities, than contribute to smooth down popular asperities, or to reconcile the hearts of the people to each other, by holding out to them all, one and the same fair common measure of protection, favor, paternal affection and right.— Nor would it have been judging very un-charitably to suspect that, profoundly instructed as statesmen must now a days be,
by the uniform experience of many years, in the sad truth that party generates commotion—that commotion is the parent of cabal and intrigue—and that cabal and intrigue are the handmaids of ambition, a popular leader of ability would not be very solicitous to calm the turbulence of faction—to infuse into the public bosom a spirit of mutual forbearance and toleration—to preach (in imitation of the divine Author of our religion) to the people who should call him to the rule, "Love one another;" or by every means he should possess to give effect to such precepts by a correspondent beneficence in practice, and by even-handed justice in distributing to his fellow citizens without distinction. He who, as the world goes, could demand from such a man; violent acts of disinterestedness and purity to the sacrifice of ambition, is still a dupe to the workings of romance upon his own imagination, and appoints a task to another which it is ten thousand to one he would himself be incapable of performing.
It does not cost a mighty exertion of virtue, (and if it did, our patriots would not be so prompt and liberal as they always are on all such occasions) to dictate to a man, surrounded with temptations, and with the power to indulge himself, a flaming lesson of abstinence. A person of more honest zeal than knowledge of the world, might address a man of high standing and say to him, "Sir! it is your duty to lay aside all your predilections and prejudiced feelings;
'tis true, you have from your outset in life, been unalterably attached to particular principles and opinions, that in order to render those principles and opinions triumphant, you devoted your life and your labors to a particular party of men, and that you opposed with all your might another party who were hostile to them; still you at length succeeded in rendering the latter impotent.—But, sir, they are subdued, and can no longer controvert your opinions—they are powerless, and cannot endanger the success of the principles which you have always upheld—you are now to remember, therefore, that both parties are alike your fellow citizens, and that both being equally incompetent to mischief,

Your duty is to treat both alike—to deal out equal measure to all, and to extinguish as far as your influence extends, all enmities, and obliterate all distinctions between them. Your private ends, I am aware, may be best consulted by perpetuating those enmities, and proscribing the vanquished party for the gratification of their late adversaries; and by doing as I suggest, you will probably offend those of your late partizans, and there are many of them, whose patriotism, like their charity, begins at home, and ends where it begins, and who regard their country only as a subject of traffic—or as a parish pump which in their eyes is good for any thing only when they can catch hold of the handle and pump up its pure waters for their own private refreshment, and who think no man worthy of freedom, fair play, or civil rights, if he has ever differed in opinion from them. Nevertheless, sir, you are bound in moral duty to hazard all this, and to prefer the peace and prosperity of your country and the felicity of your fellow citizens to your own private interest or views of personal aggrandisement." All this advice would be, morally speaking, very sound, very christian-like, very excellent; but it would be paying no compliment to the sagacity or experience of the giver, to suppose that he could really hope it would be followed by the person to whom he addressed it; for I venture to affirm that there is not one in one hundred of those who bawl about patriotism, that would not consider the man as insane who would entertain such advice for a moment, unless for the purpose of using it as a bait for a political trap.

Yet all this has been done, and is now doing; and the most efficient man in the republic—the most influential, popular, and beloved, has set the example to his fellow-citizens of cleansing their hearts from the abominations of interested personal antipathies, by magnanimously relegating all such unworthy motives from his own councils; and in proportion as the doing of such an act of patriotism was rendered incredible to mere men of the world, by the difficulty of the sacrifices, is the value of the act more weighty and honorable to the doer. It is indeed a great, a splendid victory over human passion and inimi-city. Seldom does it fall to the lot of man to have the power to do such an act of virtue—as seldom, I fear, to have the will.— Seldom, seldom indeed, has so rich an oblation been offered up on the altar of genuine patriotism—and seldom has a more unsparing return of affection, and gratitude, and confidence, from a decided majority of a nation, including all its best and ablest men, been the reward of an individual.

Yet there are creatures base enough to repine at the universal calm which the virtues of this one man have produced—to languish for a restoration of party animosity with all its miseries, hatreds and heart-burnings, and to malign himself and his motives for giving tranquillity to his country.

CURIO.
There is a rumor in town that the greater part of the murders committed on the frontier of Wayne and Camden counties during the last 12 months, were actually perpetrated by a gang of white desperadoes, who had assumed the dress and appearance of Indians—it is said that altogether there are eight of these new-fangled savages, and that two or three of them have been arrested and sent to Milledgeville.— We hope for the honor of humanity, that this report is not true.

[Savannah Museum, July 30.]

SHORT ARRIVAL FROM NEW-ORLEANS.
We learn by passengers in the ship An-nisquam, in 17 days from New-Orleans, and 15 from the Balize, that the city was remarkably healthy when they sailed. There were about 60 vessels in port, and freight dull and falling.

By the above arrival we have received
New-Orleans papers to the 8th July.
[New-York paper, August 3.]

EXTRAORDINARY EFFORT.
It is stated in the Portsmouth Oracle of Saturday last, that, on the 27th of July, a person, in the vicinity of Portsmouth, mowed, between sun rise and one o'clock, upwards of two acres of grass, which yielded, as was supposed, about four tons of hay.

county, on Friday the 17th inst. spun six run and seven knots of Woolen Fillain.—

ple, and you shall have husbands, riches and Charleston, July 31.

By the arrival yesterday evening of the schr. Sally, Captain Dodd, in 7 days from the Havana, we have received from our attentive correspondent, the following information:—

"Havana, July 22.
"The Spanish packet" la Riquelme," arrived in this port last evening, in 53 days from Cadix. I was in hopes from the letters which were received from that place, per the schooner Mary-Ann, Captain Boti-nell, that this packet would have brought out the official news of the late session of the Florida to America, but nothing has transpired yet. I shall avail myself of the earliest opportunity of affording you all the information in my power on this interesting subject.

"The Spanish brig of war "San Fernando," came into this port on the afternoon of the 17th inst. after a cruise of several days on the coast of Florida.—She brought in with her a prize sloop with her armament of 17 men, with a cargo of 72 negroes.—It is affirmed by some that this sloop sailed from some port in Virginia, bound to New-Orleans, and that the negroes are American property, and belong to a plantation in New-Orleans; whence they were bound, after a legal purchase in Virginia—by others it is said that the negroes have been plundered from some Guineaman.

"The former story is most probable, as a large portion of the negroes speak broken English; the affair will without doubt be investigated in a few days, and a decision had thereon in the course of 10 or 12 years, agreeable to the true Spanish Brevity.—In the mean time they will starve the white men to death, and sell the blacks to pay arrears to Marines!"

"We have had no arrivals of consequence with Flour and Rice since my last, and these articles continue in demand at quotations annexed."

[TRANSLATED FOR THE TIMES.]
Official letter from De Simeon Ponce de Leon, commander of the Spanish brig of war St. Fernando, to His Excellency the commandant General of the Marine Department dated

Brig St. Fernando,
Port of Havana, July 7th 1818.

Most Excellent Sir—On the 24th at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, I separated from the brig Churruco, with the two schooners.— The brig continued her course with the convoy. On the 26th, we anchored opposite the bar of St Augustine. At four o'- clock of the following day, the schooners entered the port, and we immediately set sail. At 5 in the afternoon of the 1st inst.
the Island of Cuba, bearing S. S. W. distance 40 leagues, were brought to by a schooner, which, on nearing us, hoisted the flag of Venezuela. We hoisted that of Buenos Ayres, and when within speaking distance, took down the Buenos Ayres, hoisted the Spanish flag, and fired into him, when he lowered his colors, and his people precipitated themselves into the hold. At this crisis it being calm, and my vessel not maneuvering with the readiness I wished, he was enabled, owing to the lightness of his vessel, to escape beyond the reach of my fire before I had completely crippled him, though I had done much damage to the rigging. We lost sight of him in the night, and notwithstanding our endeavors to find him, at day light he was not to be seen. We then steered our course for the Providence channel, where on the 9th, I brought to the sloop General Aury, captain Nicholas Patterson, near the Berry Islands, under American colors, and bound, according to the papers he presented, from the port of Charleston to St. Thomas, one of the little Antilles. When we overhauled him, he was bearing N. E. from the bank of Bahama, a course far out of his proper direction. We found on board the sloop seventy two negroes (slaves) not mentioned in her books, and which they endeavoured to conceal from us. After some remonstrances, the captain delivered up his commission to cruise against Spain, issued by the government of Buenos Ayres. He had on board irons and munitions of war, the flags of Buenos Ayres and Venezuela—in consequence of which the negroes are placed on board this vessel, and the captain and crew made prisoners. During the rest of our cruise, nothing worthy of notice occurred.

God preserve you many years.
SIMEON PONCE DE LEON.
His Excellency Commandant General
Marine Department.

[The above vessel is believed to be, upon good information, the sloop Almyra, capt.
Peters, which sailed from this port the 8th June last, ostensibly bound to St. Thomas, and off the Hole in the Wall, fell in with an American vessel from Norfolk, bound to New-Orleans with negroes, and plundered her of them and other property.—Ed. Times.]

New-Bedford, July 31.
Extract of a letter received by a gentleman in Dartmouth, from his friend, now absent, dated Bahia, May 18, 1818:

"I write this from the very regions of dullness and dirt, idleness and sloth, opulence and indigence, bigotry and superstition; where there are more soldiers than citizens; more priests than soldiers; more prostitutes than priests; and more vermin than either. In short, from the regions of every thing calculated to render life delicious or miserable.
"As I am no connoisseur of either architeature or scenery, I can give you but an imperfect description of the town. It is, however, built on the declivity of a mountain, and interspersed in every direction, with all kinds of fruit trees, in a complete state of verdure; which, contrasted with the white houses, renders it, at a little distance, one of the most beautiful spectacles I have ever seen; but the moment you enter the town, the delight vanishes. At the foot of the mountain, you are up to the knees in mud, in miserable narrow streets, the houses nearly meeting at top, being arched over; every sixth building is a church, and every seventh a soldier's barrack or fort. At the summit of the mountain, the streets are tolerably wide, and there are a great number of extremely rich Churches, particularly the one which the Prince visits when here. I should suppose at a moderate computation, that there are gold and silver images enough in that Church to purchase half the state of Massachusetts. As for the Priests, I am informed there is no kind of morality among them.

I dined at a hotel last Sunday, on shore, in company with one, who, I was told, had been imprisoned five times for doing other men favors through the medium of their wives and daughters. He appeared in high spirits, and kept the table in a continual roar by his wit, which I did not understand much of however. As for the ladies here, the fairest of them are swarthy; —indeed, I believe a handsome woman would be esteemed a greater prodigy than a Rhinoceros in Dartmouth; in fact, it would require a nice observer to distinguish some of them from baboons, of which there are great numbers here, as well as monkeys, parrots, and all kinds of birds, even to paddy's nightingale, which cries who, who, who, so delightfully!

"I met with a truly shocking incident this morning. Passing along the street, I accidentally hit my foot against something which rolled along before me, and on looking down, I discovered it to be the head of a beautiful little infant a parently but a few hours old. I was, you may be assured, completely petrified for the moment; the blood ran cold through every vein, and curdled round my heart with horror; several people being near, came, and looking at it a moment, passed on with the utmost sangfroid imaginable, observing that such instances often occurred. It appeared to have been cut off with an axe or some sharp instrument, and the blood was still fresh on the mangled part. This is the incident, make your own comments."

FROM THE ROCHESTER GAZETTE.

"Huzza! huzza! huzza!" hawled a fellow as I was passing him.
What the matter enquired I—"Huzza! huzza! huzza!" was his answer. Perhaps thought I, we have gained some signal victory, (for it was during the revolution) and so I huzzared too.—The crowd increased and all shouted huzza.—The tumult subsided, and on asking the cause of the fellow's outcry, he informed us, with a self-approving laugh, that "his Dog had just given John's a ternal licking." You may truly guess we all huzzared our tails and necks home.

My good old Uncle Ned never told me this story (for him it was that used to tell it) without concluding with a long string of advice.
My son, (the old man used to say) this little trifling event done me more good than any one circumstance of my early life—it taught me one very important thing for a young man to know, that is, never to undertake or engage in any affair without first knowing from what principle I acted, the moving cause, and examining into the probable result. Never (he would say) do this, that or the other thing, because your neighbor "Such-a-one" may have done so; your neighbor "Such-a-one" may be a fool, and it is no more than prudent to find out before you make a beginning, lest you be foolish like your neighbor.

One evening when coming into his presence he asked me significantly, (knowing I had been with the girls) how I spent my time:—I answered him, and then began telling him the particulars—as how Miss "Such a one" was making great havoc among the young men's hearts—and as how all of them flocked about her to the neglect of the other ladies—and—here my uncle interrupted me with the exclamation of Nonsense! that puts me in mind of the Dog scrape again! He then went on to say, that he should have no hesitation in pronouncing Miss a fool—for, said he, she must be destitute of delicacy to suffer herself thus to be flattered, and not only that, but must be weak-minded in the bargain.
My son, continued the old gentleman, never choose you a wife because of the number of admirers, or the noise she makes in society, for let me tell you, it is ten to one but you find more beauty than good sense, and more impudence than real merit.

100 Dollars Reward.
On Thursday last the 6th inst. a Negro boy belonging to a gentleman of this place, was taken from the lower end of the town by two kidnappers, and carried off in a new boat. From the best information that can be obtained, the boat was rowed towards Washington City; she was painted green on the outside and had one small mast. The boy is about 8 years of age, large black eyes, and very black complexion.
Upon conviction of the kidnappers and return of the boy, the above reward will be paid; or fifty dollars for the boy alone, upon application at this office.

Alexandria, August 4.

WAS committed to the jail of this Co. as a run away, a negro man, who calls himself JOHN WEAKS, and says that he was born free in Prince George Co.
Maryland, that his mother's name is Sally Green, who lives near the road leading from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch bridge, adjoining one Hen. Thompson. He was committed to this jail on the 7th May last, and then called himself William Washington, but made his escape the 10th. He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout made. Says he is known to Mr. Daniel Moxley, and Henry Thompson, of Maryland. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

The Improved Patent Plough.

The expensive force necessary for ploughing in the common way, has been long known and lamented by farmers.
Many attempts have been made to obviate that inconvenience, by the construction of a plough on Mechanical principles, and patents have been granted to applicants who promise to have improved on that agricultural implement. These improvements are now before the public, the proper arbiters in such cases, who will approve or condemn according to the merits or demerits of the performance.

I, also, have become a candidate for public patronage, and shall attempt to explain and give reasons to show at least some advantages which I think my plough possesses over any other now in use.
For its durability and simplicity of construction, its first excellency, no plough now in use surpasses it—but its chief advantages lie in the ease with which it breaks and inverts the soil, and will plough in clover or grass land of any kind without being clogged or choked. These properties arise from the mechanical principles on which it is formed. The wedge is said to possess the requisite properties for breaking and raising the soil with the least applicable force. This plough is so formed as to form a wedge with the mould-board, which raises the earth gradually to the greatest perpendicular height, when by a regular turn of the mould-board it is inverted, rendering the pressure inconceivable, and consequently, the force necessary to draw it proportionably small. The beam is made of iron or wood, and has a considerable curve, which permits all vegetable matter to pass off. I would recommend the iron beam, as it has several advantages over the wood, and the difference of expense small.
I have thought it a duty to my fellow citizens to publish a few lines of instruction to facilitate the mode of using and repairing the same. Before the plough is used, the mould-board should be secured with free stone or a well burnt brick and water until it is perfectly smooth. The horses should draw by a double or treble tree, which is confined to the clevis or beam by an open ring. The point and share should be laid with steel when necessary; the latter must be kept level with the bar; and the point inclined a little down. If this be well attended to by the good husbandman, he will be able to eat the "fattest calf," when the indolent will sink into want.

These ploughs will be furnished at my shop in this County, and in Alexandria by James Atkinson, near Poston's tavern, Peyton street.

BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry
versus
Es. B. Dunnington; Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. Taylor his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.
THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate debted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the estate, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington non-residents.—It is thereupon, at the request of the Complainant, ordered that there be a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that absent defendants may have notice of the application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a counsel, to shew cause, if any there be, why a decree should not pass as demanded. Tests.

The subscriber offers for sale a FARM of 450 acres, being part of the tract whereon he resides, in Fauquier county, Va. Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES, OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phenomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country, for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavored to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past secured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Tape or large round worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.

To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
